Elmdon a small town in Warwickshire is supposed to took its name from from Coventry to Birmingham. It is supposed to took its name from the great quantity of Elms formerly growing there in 'twas before the Norman Conquest possessed by one Toche. But after the conquest Turcill de Warwick had a grant thereof as may be seen by the Generall Survey shortly after taken where it is rated at half a hide the woods therein belonging containing one fur long in length and as much in breadth and all valued at 5 the same Toche who also he Merston being his under-tenant - By some of the Turcills descendants it was granted to the ancestors of Simon De Barcheston whom I to be he that had also Whiticar Superior & whose descendants where name of that place for by a fine in the 8 of Hen 3 betwene Simon De Barcheston Plunkife & Simon the son of Jordan de Whiticar defendant. Cited for Warranty of a former Charter it appears that the S^r Simon de Whitacre his heirs were to hold this place of the before specified Simon de Barcheston his heirs by the service of half a knight's fee but it continued not long so in y^r 20 Hen 3 the S^r ~~half knight's fee~~ ^{half knight's fee} was certified to be held immediately of E of Warwick in y^r 36 of Hen 3 of Tho de Arden heir to Turcill before spe-and by him of that ~~place~~ ^{place} which Simon de Whitacre in 41 Hen 3 obtained a Charter of free Warren of all his Demise Lands here but his Seat being at Whitacre Superior I have their placed their descendants - I shall here take notice of Hore & Butler the Descendants of the Whitacres who had their Residence in this place of the Hores the first was Thomas (that became Lord of this Mannour by the Marriage of Magg one of the Daughters & heirs of Alin Waldoff who had married Johanna daughter & heir of Richard de Whitacre) ~~Thomas of which Thomas~~ had ~~his~~ ^{his} habitation here in y^r 9 Hen 2 I find one Rich^d le Hore of Elme and towards the latter end of Ed 3 Tho Hore Escheator for this County & Leister shire who was as may be supposed grandfather to the above specified Thomas which Thomas & his band of Margreth underwent the same fine in 8 Hen 6 to whom succeeded Alin Hore who left Issue Catherine daughter & heir ~~not~~ wedded to John Butler son and heir of Rich^d Butler of Polyhull of which John who was a lawyer was under shire unto Robert Arden Esq^r but after his Marriage with the Heir of Hore was employed in a higher degree of service for in 3 Hen 7 he was in command for assaying of a subsidy & after for a Gaol delivery & was constituted of the peace for y^r County & in Hen 4 & 5 times Justice of the Peace for the shire of John Butler Gent he departed this life y^r 34 Hen 3 to whom succeeded John his son and heir which John the 34 Hen 3 sold this Mannour unto Tho Marston Gent who had Issue Samuel who sold it to Henry Mayne of Bosglon in the County of Hertford Gent whose son James possessed it after his death & his Brother John: after having a male Issue & to him succeeded his son who was succeeded by James his son and ^{he} succeeded by William his son who left only one sister Married to Benjamin Baine of London: who was his heir. He died the 25 Aug: 1728 in the second year of the Reign of King George the Second
