Dear Sir, Jackson v Abraham.

We have no answer from Mr Ford though he promised to write yesterday
We think you had better send us instructions for declaration which we will apprise him of & it will probably quicken his movements.

We are, dear Sir
yours truly
Wing & Twining.

24th August 1867.

Dear Sir;

Leatherland's Title.

I would be happy to facilitate the Business but I do submit that you would not to require my Client to carry out your fair requirement after a lapse of nearly sixty years and great hardship during that time.

Mr. Gates has examined the Title for the late James Leatherland in or about the year 1815 and from the marginal notes in the abstract it does appear that he was at that time adopted your remark.

Mr. Gates also thinks made the Title I should have thought had if you persist any Office copy must I apprehend be procured.

Will direct the Vendor to procure Certificate of the death or burial of his brother.

I am Dear Sir

Very truly Yrs

Wm. H. H. H.
