C A P. XV.

An Act to amend an Act made in the Fifty-second Year of His present Majesty, for making Provision for the better Support of His Majesty's Household, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition.

[23d March 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for making Provision for the better Support of His Majesty's Household, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, it is among other Things enacted, that whenever the Deficiency of the Civil List Revenues should exceed a certain Sum therein mentioned, the Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, should cause an Account of such Deficiency of the Civil List Revenues to be laid before Parliament within One Month after the same should have arisen, if Parliament should be then sitting; or if Parliament should not be then sitting, within One Month after the next Sitting of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the Accounts of His Majesty's Civil List Revenues should for the Purposes of the said Act, and the more effectual Execution of the Provisions thereof, be made up and completed to a fixed and certain Period in each Year, during the Continuance of the said Act; and that

Accounts of Civil List Revenues to be made up and computed
to a certain Period in each Year; and in case of Deficiency, to be laid before Parliament.

the said Accounts should be laid before Parliament, in conformity to the Provisions of the said Act, at an earlier Period of the Year than has hitherto taken place; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Accounts of His Majesty's Civil List Revenues shall, for the Purposes of the said Act, be hereafter made up and computed to the Fifth Day of January in each Year, for the Year preceding the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen; and that in case any Deficiency shall appear to have taken place in the Year preceding such Fifth Day of January whereof, according to the Provisions of the said recited Act, an Account is required to be laid before Parliament, in Manner therein directed, that then and in that case the several Accounts of the said Civil List Revenues, made up as aforesaid for One Year to the Fifth Day of January then last preceding, shall, as required by the said recited Act, be laid before Parliament on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February in each Year, if Parliament shall be then sitting; and in case Parliament shall not be then sitting, within Twenty Days after the then next Meeting of Parliament.
